12 Plaintiffs,

13 v.

14 KING COUNTY FLOOD
15 CONTROL ZONE DISTRICT, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. C22-1626JLR

MINUTE ORDER

16 The following minute order is made by the direction of the court, the Honorable
17 James L. Robart:

18 Before the court is pro se Plaintiffs' motion to continue the deadlines outlined in 19 the court's March 15, 2023 initial scheduling order. (Mot. (Dkt. # 40); see also 3/15/23
20 Order (Dkt. # 23).) Plaintiffs argue that good cause exists for the continuance in light of 21 the pending motions to dismiss and the court's earlier order granting the parties' request
22 for a continuance of the deadlines set forth in the court's February 24, 2023 initial

1 scheduling order. (Mot. (stating that Defendants “have already agreed” to continue the
2 initial scheduling deadlines); see 3/14/23 Order (Dkt. # 22) (continuing the initial
3 scheduling deadlines in light of the pending motions to dismiss).¹)

4 Defendants’ motions to dismiss are still pending (see Dkt.), and Plaintiffs’
5 response to the court’s show cause order is due on April 21, 2023 (see 4/6/23 Order (Dkt.
6 # 39)). Accordingly, the court GRANTS Plaintiffs’ motion to continue the deadlines
7 outlined in the court’s March 15, 2023 initial scheduling order (Dkt. # 40). The Clerk
8 will enter a new initial scheduling order, if appropriate, after the court reviews Plaintiffs’
9 response to the court’s show cause order and rules on Defendants’ pending motions to 10 dismiss.

11 Filed and entered this 21st day of April, 2023.
